CARNERO BREAKS A RECORD.

It was sweltering hot yesterday at Hawthorne, with little or no breeze astir, and it was consequently an ideal afternoon for recording fast time. As horses of good class were running the result was that the world's record for one mile and a sixteenth was broken and the track record for five and a half furlongs was lowered.

J. M. Murphy's big son of Candlemas—Sister Geneva, Carnero, was the one that set a new world's mark for a mile and one sixteenth, and Ed Corrigan's slashing youngster, Golden Rule, was the one that reduced the track record for five and one-half furlongs.

Carnero was in the third race along with Raffaello, Cherry Leaf and Sam Lazarus, Esq., and while it appeared probable that he would win no one thought that he was good enough to break the record. He was though, and did it like a real racehorse. Carnero won easily up in 1:45 flat. This knocks a quarter of a second from the old record, which was held by Redskin. The latter, with only 58 pounds and little Bobby Hothersall up, ran in 1:45 at Forsythe, June 6, 1896.

The Carnero race was a hummer all the way through from a time standpoint. Sam Lazarus Esq. went out from the drop of the flag to make a runaway race of it and the pace that he set was something terrific. He stepped the first quarter in 23 seconds, the half in 47, five furlongs in 1:00 flat and three-quarters in 1:12. This put him away out in front and when Burns, on Carnero, set sail for him on the far turn he was six lengths to the good and seemed to be going well in hand. Carnero, however, had speed to loan and when the stretch was reached he went to the front, and several timers say he stepped the first mile in 1:38. He must have done so, too, for he simply loomed at the end and then ran in phenomenal time. Carnero was the favorite and heavily backed. At one time there was 6 to 5 offered against him, but, when going to the post 9 to 10 was the best price in the ring.

Golden Rule made a grand impression on the Chicago race-going public that saw him perform. He acted badly and was much used at the post, but this cut no figure in the result, and the Corrigan champion, after showing a high grade of speed, won as he pleased. He only carried 100 pounds and did not beat much to speak of, but the race was a good one just the same.

Jim Arthur has had a streak of very bad luck around here this summer, and everyone who knew him was glad to see Moroni win the fourth race. He was the talent's choice at about even money and Tommy Burns was up. This made it look like a good thing, and the heavy bettors unloaded on him. So far as a contest was concerned there was nothing to the race. Moroni galloped in behind Kunja to the head of the stretch and then shot past her as though she was tied. Kunja finished second and Marcato third.

There was a very ordinary lot in the first event and George Arnold, heavily backed at about 3 to 1, won as he pleased.

The seven furlong scramble went to Contessa, who came to life with a start that jarred from players. She beat Brownie Anderson by a narrow margin after a very hard drive.

Miss Patron was backed to 7 to 10 to win the last race but she finished a distant third to Double Dummy and Seattle.

Bookmaker Owen Perry was overcome by the heat after the first race and fell off the block. He was not badly hurt by the fall.

THOROUGHBREDS AT AUCTION.

Winner—Ch. h. by Sir Dixon—Dione. Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won in a romp; the next three were driving. George Arnold was far the best and simply galloped unextended all the way. He is a fine looking horse and was in a soft spot. Ramlet ran a good race. After the start he was slightly interfered with but not enough to make any difference in the result. Calchas, with a big pull in the weights, ran a good race. Brown Dick stopped to a walk at the end. He is a bad horse. It was a bad lot all around.

George Arnold, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Ramlet, place, 2½ to 1; show, evens. Calchas, show, evens. Brown Dick, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Golden Garter—Lucille Murphy. Post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won easily after an early drive; second and third eased also. It was a smashing good race for Golden Rule. He acted badly and was much used at the post, but this did not seem to hurt him in the least. The youngster is almost a perfect racing machine. Hagerdon got a flying start and showed a fine turn of speed. Tarhill had no excuses. Florizar is a slow beginner, but finished very fast. The Monk will do. He was right there. The time marks a new track record.

Winner—B. h. by Candelma—Sister Geneva. Off at the first break to a good start. Won very easily; second whipped out. The other two were driving to the limit. Carnero is in rare form and ran a grand race. He broke the record and could have run much faster had he been pushed out. As it was Burns was easing him up in the last twenty yards. Rafaello ran an excellent race, but was simply not fast enough to beat Carnero. He swerved under punishment in the stretch. Cherry Leaf was hardly ready. This race will sharpen him up. Sam Lazarus Esq., set a terrific pace. He is a very fast colt.

Overweights—Rafaello, 34 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Sayre—Stephanie. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; the next two were doing their best. Moroni was in a soft spot and won as he pleased. He was a good horse today. Kunja got a flying start and showed a good turn of speed. She hung on gamely, too, at the end. Marcato finished with a rush. Antquary cannot do his best at a mile. Fair Deceiver ran below her notch. The field was badly strung out at the finish.

Winner—B. f. by Leonatus—Falsie. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a long hard drive. The next four were driving also. Contessa ran a much better race than she did when last out and finished strongly. Vitito rode her well. Brownie Anderson hung on gamely through the stretch. She is a fairly good filly that improves with every race. Dinornis ran a far better race than the winner. He was badly interfered with at the start and was generally roughly treated, but came very strong at the finish. Man of Honor was poorly handled and got into a bad pocket at the head of the stretch. Mission quit badly. Clara Wooley got a bad ride. Yoloco can do better.
